BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

11. During the Application Period, CR3 provided services to the Trustee in accordance with its Employment Application, including, but not limited to: (i) reviewing and analyzing Debtor financial statements and other financial records, (ii) consulting on and evaluating asset recovery actions pursued by the Trustee, (iii) preparing detailed analyses for the Trustee regarding the same, and (iv) completing other certain accounting and financial tasks at the request of the Trustee.

- 12. In performing the services detailed in this Application, CR3 has endeavored to ensure that its professionals comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any other applicable procedures or orders of the Court.
- 13. CR3 endeavored to provide financial advisory services to the Trustee in the most expeditious and economical manner possible. CR3 assigned tasks to professionals, so work was performed by those most familiar with the task and with the lowest hourly rate professional appropriate. Moreover, CR3 coordinated with other professionals and individuals involved in the case to minimize duplication of effort and fees of the Estate. CR3 believes it was successful in this regard.
- 14. No agreement or understanding exists between CR3 and any other person for sharing compensation received or to be received in connection with this case.

APPLICABLE LEGAL STANDARD

- 15. Under § 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may award a financial advisor to the Trustee reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered in service to the Trustee and the Estate and reimbursement for actual, out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Factors considered by the Court include the nature, value, and extent of the services provided, time spent on such services, and the market rates of comparable services in a non-bankruptcy matter.
- 16. Under the "lodestar" approach, the Court should consider the number of hours of service reasonably devoted to the case multiplied by the professional's reasonable rates. Courts frequently consider the specific lodestar factors enumerated in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974). These lodestar tests were adopted by the Fourth Circuit in Barber v. Kimbrells, Inc., 577 F.2d 216, 226 (4th Cir.), cert. denied, 439 U.S. 934 (1978), and in Anderson v. Morris, 658 F.2d 246, 249 (4th Cir. 1981), where the Fourth Circuit held that the District Court should employ the lodestar approach and then adjust the fee based on the remaining Johnson factors in the case. The following are the Johnson factors:

- (a) the time and labor required;
- (b) the novelty and difficulty of the questions;
- (c) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;
- (d) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case;
- (e) the customary fee;
- (f) whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
- (g) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances;
- (h) the amount involved and the results obtained;
- (i) the experience, reputation and ability of the attorneys;
- (j) the "undesirability" of the case;
- (k) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
- (1) awards in similar cases.

Johnson, 488 F.2d at 717-719; Barber, 577 F.2d at 226, n.28; Anderson, 658 F.2d at 248, n.2. 23.

- 17. CR3 believes the services it rendered to the Chapter 7 Trustee and the Estate and the out-of-pocket expenses it incurred therewith were necessary and reasonable in view of the Trustee's obligations in this case and the scope and nature of the matters in which the Chapter 7 Trustee was involved.
- 18. Upon information and belief, the rates charged by CR3 are comparable to, if not less than, rates other firms charge in comparable Chapter 7 cases. CR3 believes the fees requested herein clearly satisfy the Johnson factors as set forth above.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, CR3 respectfully requests this Court enter an Order, substantially in the form attached hereto (i) approving this Application, (ii) allowing for interim allowance of reasonable compensation for the actual, reasonable, and necessary professional services CR3 rendered as financial advisor to the Trustee in this case for the Application Period in the amount of $27,471.15 and (iii) for any such other relief as the Court deems proper and just.
